The Slater-Millner Scholars Fund

Ascension Medical Educators Aspiring Physicians Program

The Slater-Millner Scholars Fund is partnering with UNCF to support the Ascension Medical Educators (AME) - Aspiring Physicians Program. The program enhances the diversity of the physician workforce by providing expert academic advising, mentoring and professional development services to pre-medical students who are under-represented in medicine, and by optimizing participants’ consideration for medical school admission.

Individuals are eligible to receive up to $15,000

Application Eligibility Criteria:

- Minimum GPA of 2.8 on a 4.0 scale
- U.S. Citizen, U.S. National or Permanent Resident or DACA eligible student
- Rising sophomore undergraduate student
- Enrolled in an accredited, four-year, U.S. located college/university at the time of application
- African American/Black, Hispanic American/Latinx, American Indian or Alaska Native, Hmong, Cambodian, Vietnamese, or Native Hawaiian
- On the curricular tract for Pre-Medical Major or comparable curricular tract for Allopathic or Osteopathic Medicine
- Preference will be given to applicants who reside in, or are permanent residents of, the state of Massachusetts.
